Madeline Ban and Joseph Glascock Exchange Vows

Madeline Ban and Joseph Glascock exchanged marriage vows last Sunday in an early morning formal double ceremony in the Nativity Catholic Church in Torrance. Rev. P. J. McGuinness joined the couple in holy matrimony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Ban, of 1412 Crenshaw blvd. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glascock of Long Beach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an exquisite all lace over satin gown with a chapel length train and a fingertip veil. The sleeves were all lace and arm length. She carried a bouquet of orchids, lilies and hollyhocks.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Pauline Lessman. She was gowned in a bitersweet faille gown of ballerina length with a scooped neckline. She carried a bouquet of tuberous begonias.

GOWNED ALIKE

The other bridesmaids, all attired in the same costume as the matron of honor, were Mrs. Yvonne Petersen, the bride's aunt and Chloe Glascock, sister of the groom.

Acting as best man was Oscar Contratto, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Jim Contratto, another cousin of the groom, and Joseph Ban, the bride's brother.

The mother of the bride, Mr. Richard J. Ban wore a lovely aqua chiffon gown with pale pink accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. John Glascock, the groom's mother, was gowned in cerise pink crepe with gray accessories. A white orchid corsage highlighted her costume.

300 GUESTS
The newlyweds were host to 300 guests at a dinner reception held 5 p.m. the same day at the American Legion hall. Centerpiece of attraction was a unique square-shaped six tiered wedding cake mounted on an angel pedestal.

The couple left immediately following the reception on a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe. Length of the honeymoon period was not disclosed.

The new Mrs. Glascock is a graduate of Torrance High School and Compton Junior College. She had been employed as a dental assistant in San Pedro for about two years preceding her marriage. Glascock, who is a recent graduate of La Verne Teachers College is planning to accept a teaching position soon, it was reported.

The couple will be at home to guests in Long Beach, following their approximately one week honeymoon.

Celebrates 80th Birthday

A group of friends gathered at the home of H. W. Nielsen, 3305 W. 168th St., North Torrance Tuesday afternoon to help W. T. Martin, well known in this area, celebrate his 80th birthday.

Martin, who resides at 4300 Redondo Beach blvd., North Torrance, was instrumental in getting North Torrance annexed to 1930's.

Festival Marks Play End At Lomita Park

LOMITA—"End of Summer Dance Festival" will be held tonight, August 30 in the Community Building at Lomita Park. It was announced by Mrs. Marjorie Lomsdale, recreation director.

Children from the local park are not taking part in the dancing. Mrs. Lomsdale said, but are presenting a comedy skit entitled "Paper Dolls." The skit will be staged as part of the continuity of the festival.

Other parks in the southwest region are sending troupes of dancers to the event, the recreation director said, and each will present dances of a different nation.

On the program are Athens, Swiss; Lawndale, Scotch; Lennox, United States; West Hollywood, Arabian; Plummer, Mexican; Ladera, Scandinavian; Sportsman, Austrian; Avalon-Sepulveda, Russian Gypsy, and Harbor Hills, Israeli.

Activities, Plans of No. Torrance P-TA Revealed

The Executive Board of the North Torrance Elementary PTA held a special meeting August 22 at the home of the President Mrs. Ralph McBee. The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Alfred Neher, publicity chairman, who has moved from the area, and ratification of the appointment by the president of Mrs. A. M. Goodfellow, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Charles Stauffer, assistant publicity, was passed.

The president gave a report of the activity of the association since the June board meeting. The need for a nursery during regular monthly meetings was presented, and the motion carried to have a nursery during the meetings.

The school library project was discussed, but due to the erection of a building to house a branch of the County Library at McMaster Recreation Center, it was decided to dispense with plans for a library at the school. It was agreed full support would be given to the County Library, and along these lines, a librarian is to be featured at the November meeting to encourage the

Hammerton Tract Youth Outing

A group of young people from the Hammerton Tract Community Church went miniature golfing last Thursday evening, August 23rd, at the Shady Acres Golf Course in Long Beach. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Pearl York. An enjoyable time was reported by all who attended.

Committee had selected "Time for Beany" as the first program to evaluate. Their findings will be reported to the Torrance Council September 1, 1951.

PAPER DRIVE

Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem, Finance and Budget Chairman, presented to the board the 1951-52 planned money-raising activities of the committee. A paper and rag drive is to be held September 26, 1951 at the school to start the year's activities.

Board members present included Mesdames Lyda Willis, James Giuliano, Harry Van Bellehem, Owen Bertrand, Robert Jackson, Aron Wiebe, Leon Blumfield, Al Goodfellow, Ott Fagnano, Barton Davidson, Jules Ross, Walter Brownson, Ralph McBee, and Mr. Donald Robison, Principal.

Health Center to Conduct Expectant Parents' Classes

Expectant parents' classes will be conducted this fall at the Torrance Health Center by the county health department. Anyone interested in new babies will be eligible to attend.

Officials at the Torrance health center, which has jurisdiction over Lomita, Harbor Hills, Waveria, Torrance and other harbor localities, requested port residents interested in attending the classes to notify them by telephone, so that they can plan a class schedule.

Subject matter for the women-folk, who are prospective mothers, grandmothers and adopting mothers, includes information and demonstration on layettes, baby's bath, nutrition, formula preparation, what to take to the hospital, and care of the new baby.

Among the topics discussed in the fathers' sessions, which are evening classes, are situations created by a new baby in the home.

Along with a variety of booklets on mother and baby care, a pink and blue ribboned diploma will be given to graduates of the 12-week course, health center officials said.
